The Envelope Screening Series Logo Usage Guidelines

It is essential that The Envelope Screening Series logo be used properly.

- Keep the logo to exact scale — do not stretch the logo horizontally or vertically.
- Avoid manipulating the size or shape of the logo.
- Avoid manipulating the relation of type in the logo.
- When color is used, the logo may appear only in the colors shown below.
- Logo should not be placed on photos.
- The logo can not be broken into individual words and stacked in any way.
- When using the name of the company in type, you MUST spell out “Los Angeles Times” or use “LA Times” (i.e. “L.A. Times,” “LAT” or “L.A.T.” are NOT acceptable).
- In copy, the name of the Los Angeles Times must always be used in one line and NEVER broken between lines.
